

Kindergarten Moms To Meet

There will be a kindergarten mothers' meeting at 10 a.m. on Friday, February 11 in the 25th Place School auditorium, according to Mrs. Myrna Drovits, school nurse. The meeting, conducted by Mrs. Drovits, will concern itself with child safety and health in school. Refreshments will be served by the P.T.A.

Dr. Philip Halloran showed colored slides of "Domestic Life of a G.I. in Japan" at a recent Kiwanis meeting. Dr. Halloran took the pictures during his tour of duty in Japan while he was with the Army Medical Corps.

Juniorettes Planning Gala Valentine Hop

A formal Valentine dance is in the offing this Saturday night for the Epsilon Sigma Juniors, who will gather with parents and guests at 8 p.m. at the YWCA. Highlight of the occasion will be the installation of four rushees preceding the dance.

New Juniors members to be installed are Joanne Minnear, Donna Walker, Elsa Barlow, and Mary Ann Rurak.

The Juniors are sponsored by the Torrance chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International sorority, of which Mrs. Winona Jackson is president.

In addition to parents, members of the senior sorority to be present as chaperones for this occasion will be Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Irene Roberts, and Mrs. Bonnie Allen.

At the request of the sorority's international headquarters in Loveland, Colorado, Mrs. Jackson has recently accepted the task of organizing other chapters of Juniors in California.

Shower Fetes Betty Beckett

A bridal shower was given for Miss Betty Beckett by the members of the women's ceramic class at Normandale Playground last week. The honoree, daughter of the Dan Becketts, will be the bride of Roger Hazher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hazher.

Those present for the personal shower combined with a potluck luncheon included the bride-elect and her parents, and fiancé and his parents, Mesdames Jewell Patton, Neva Mitchell, Norma Condon, and Billie Robertson with her two small daughters. Also present was Miss Alice M. Dunbar, the teacher of the ceramics class and chief recreation director at Normandale.

VANG PATIO SCENE OF SIXTH BIRTHDAY FETE

Fourteen small friends of Linda Vang gathered in the lovely yard and patio of the Edward O. Vangs at 1304 Font-hill avenue, last Saturday, to celebrate Linda's sixth birthday.

Enjoying games in the lovely yard were Carol Kilday, Chris Smith, Barbara Williams, Charlotte Bliss, Donny Lip-pold, Tommy Thornton, and Barbara Nelson.

More were Billy, David, and Sandy Starr, Debby and Francie Fox, Kitty Barrett, and Barbara Williams.

Winning the prize for getting the most clothespins in a bottle was David Starr. Tommy Thornton won a prize for shooting balls into a tub, and Kitty Barrett won the pie tin-on-the-head competition.

All the young guests sang "Happy Birthday Linda" as the beautifully decorated loaf cake was brought out to the patio table where the children had enjoyed a tasty lunch.
